Floyd, Virginia 24091

Dear Arts and Crafts Vendor:

The GFWC Floyd County Woman's Club is delighted to welcome new and returning exhibitors to the Annual Floyd County Arts and Crafts Festival. We hope you have a successful show and will join us for the 2019 Festival on Oct. 5 and Oct. 6, 2019 at Floyd County High School. The hours will be 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Saturday and 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday.

This festival is a community service project and all proceeds from space fees are donated to benefit needs in the local community and surrounding areas. If you return your entry form by the close of this year's festival, the space fee will be $75.00 per space. After the festival, the space fee increases to $85.00 per space. Food vendors, who sell food to be consumed on the premises, must be approved by the GFWC A&C Committee prior to the festival and the space fee is $100.00 per space. Please contact Pat Harris with food vendor questions. In order to reserve the same space as this year, your fee must be paid before the end of the festival. After that, spaces are assigned on a first come-first serve basis. Please make your check payable to: GFWC Floyd County Woman's Club and return to the hostess station during the festival.

After the festival, applications are to be sent to Pat Harris, 3702 Laurel Branch Rd. NW, Floyd, VA 24091. You may also reach Mrs. Harris by phone at (540) 789-7404 or e-mail at floydartscrafts@swva.net. All indoor spaces are 10 ft. x 8 ft. and outside spaces are 12 ft. x 10 ft. If during the year you find you must cancel, your money will be refunded if you inform Mrs. Harris in writing by Sept 20, 2019.

The GFWC Floyd County Woman's Club reserves the right to deny any application. In the event the club must exercise the right to ask a vendor to leave the festival, (ex. reason for request might be selling non-handcrafted items), the vendor will not be given a refund for the space fee(s).
